AN ACT

To repeal section 559.115, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the shock incarceration program, with penalty provisions.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 559.115, RSMo, is repealed and one new section
2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 559.115, to read as follows:

559.115. 1. Neither probation nor parole shall be granted by the circuit 2 court between the time the transcript on appeal from the offender's conviction has 3 been filed in appellate court and the disposition of the appeal by such court.

4 2. Unless otherwise prohibited by subsection 5 of this section, a circuit 5 court only upon its own motion and not that of the state or the offender shall 6 have the power to grant probation to an offender anytime up to one hundred 7 twenty days after such offender has been delivered to the department of 8 corrections but not thereafter. The court may request information and a 9 recommendation from the department concerning the offender and such offender's 10 behavior during the period of incarceration. Except as provided in this section, 11 the court may place the offender on probation in a program created pursuant to 12 section 217.777, RSMo, or may place the offender on probation with any other 13 conditions authorized by law.

14 3. The court may recommend placement of an offender in a department 15 of corrections one hundred twenty-day program. Upon the recommendation of the 16 court, the department of corrections shall determine the offender's eligibility for 17 the program, the nature, intensity, and duration of any offender's participation 18 in a program and the availability of space for an offender in any program. When 19 the court recommends and receives placement of an offender in a department of EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

20 corrections one hundred twenty-day program, the offender shall be released on 21 probation if the department of corrections determines that the offender has 22 successfully completed the program except as follows. Upon successful completion 23 of a treatment program, the board of probation and parole shall advise the 24 sentencing court of an offender's probationary release date thirty days prior to 25 release. The court shall release the offender unless such release constitutes an 26 abuse of discretion. If the court determined that there is an abuse of discretion, 27 the court may order the execution of the offender's sentence only after conducting 28 a hearing on the matter within ninety to one hundred twenty days of the 29 offender's sentence. If the court does not respond when an offender successfully 30 completes the program, the offender shall be released on probation. Upon 31 successful completion of a shock incarceration program, the board of probation
32 and parole shall advise the sentencing court of an offender's probationary release 33 date thirty days prior to release. The court shall follow the recommendation of 34 the department unless the court determines that probation is not appropriate. If 35 the court determines that probation is not appropriate, the court may order the 36 execution of the offender's sentence only after conducting a hearing on the matter 37 within ninety to one hundred twenty days of the offender's sentence. If the 38 department determines that an offender is not successful in a program, then after 39 one hundred days of incarceration the circuit court shall receive from the 40 department of corrections a report on the offender's participation in the program
41 and department recommendations for terms and conditions of an offender's 42 probation. The court shall then release the offender on probation or order the 43 offender to remain in the department to serve the sentence imposed.

44 4. If the department of corrections one hundred twenty-day program is 45 full, the court may place the offender in a private program approved by the 46 department of corrections or the court, the expenses of such program to be paid 47 by the offender, or in an available program offered by another organization. If 48 the offender is convicted of a class C or class D nonviolent felony, the court may 49 order probation while awaiting appointment to treatment.

50 5. Except when the offender has been found to be a predatory sexual 51 offender pursuant to section 558.018, RSMo, the court shall request that the 52 offender be placed in the sexual offender assessment unit of the department of 53 corrections if the defendant has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of 54 sexual abuse when classified as a class B felony.

55 6. Unless the offender is being granted probation pursuant to successful

56 completion of a one hundred twenty-day program the circuit court shall notify the 57 state in writing when the court intends to grant probation to the offender
58 pursuant to the provisions of this section. The state may, in writing, request a 59 hearing within ten days of receipt of the court's notification that the court intends 60 to grant probation. Upon the state's request for a hearing, the court shall grant 61 a hearing as soon as reasonably possible. If the state does not respond to the 62 court's notice in writing within ten days, the court may proceed upon its own 63 motion to grant probation.

64 7. An offender's first incarceration for one hundred twenty days for 65 participation in a department of corrections program prior to release on probation 66 shall not be considered a previous prison commitment for the purpose of 67 determining a minimum prison term under the provisions of section 558.019,
68 RSMo.

69 8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation may not be 70 granted pursuant to this section to offenders who have pleaded guilty to, been 71 found guilty of, or been convicted of any felony offense under chapter 566,
72 RSMo, committed against a victim less than seventeen years of age;
73 murder in the second degree pursuant to section 565.021, RSMo; forcible rape
74 pursuant to section 566.030, RSMo; forcible sodomy pursuant to section 566.060,
75 RSMo; [statutory rape in the first degree pursuant to section 566.032, RSMo;
76 statutory sodomy in the first degree pursuant to section 566.062, RSMo; child
77 molestation in the first degree pursuant to section 566.067, RSMo, when classified 78 as a class A felony;] abuse of a child pursuant to section 568.060, RSMo, when 79 classified as a class A felony; an offender who has been found to be a predatory
80 sexual offender pursuant to section 558.018, RSMo; or any offense in which there 81 exists a statutory prohibition against either probation or parole.
